

Cookie Policy

Before using this website, please read our Cookie Policy.

By continuing to browse this website, you are agreeing to this Cookie Policy.

If you do not agree with this Cookie Policy, please use your browser settings, etc. to disable cookies. Note that, if cookies are disabled, certain functions of this website might not be available for use.

1 About cookies

Cookies are pieces of information stored in devices that can connect to the Internet, including user computers, tablets, and smartphones.

This website uses both session cookies and persistent cookies.

Session cookies are temporarily saved while this website is browsed. In contrast, persistent cookies are saved to your computer, tablet, smartphone, etc., where they remain until either the specified expiration date is reached or you manually delete them.

2 Purposes of using cookies

This website uses cookies mainly for the purposes below in order to improve its user's convenience while also maintaining or improving the quality of our services.

Note that we never use cookies for the purpose of obtaining the personal information of users.

- (1) To display the website in the best possible condition and improve services
- (2) To statistically research and analyze the website usage situation (Google Analytics and Google Search Console)

3 About the use of Google Analytics

This website uses Google Analytics, a service provided by Google LLC, to grasp the website usage situation.

More specifically, the cookies issued by the Company are used with Google Analytics to analyze the website usage situation.

The Company then receives the analysis results (including Google Analytics reports on user attributes and interest categories) from Google LLC to grasp the usage situation of this website.

The information collected, recorded, and analyzed by using Google Analytics does not contain any information that can be used to identify specific individuals.

In addition, this information is managed by Google LLC based on that company's Privacy Policy.

For details on the Google Analytics Terms of Service, the Google LLC Privacy Policy, etc., please see the following:

- Google Analytics Terms of Service
- Google Privacy Policy
- How Google uses information collected from sites or apps that use Google services

4 How to manage or delete cookies

Users can change the browser settings of their computer, tablet, smartphone, or other device which they are using to disable cookies.

Users can also delete saved cookies. Note that it is still possible to use this website if cookies have been disabled, but some functions might not be available for use.

For details on how to change your browser settings, please see the website of each browser provider.
